The notice of intent to file a writ petition must be signed by the party intending to file the writ petition, or if to be filed on behalf of the child, by the attorney of record for the child. Upon a finding of good cause, based on a declaration by the attorney of record as to why the party could not sign the notice, the appellate court may waive the requirement of the party's signature. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 39.1B(f).) Signatories of this notice do not waive the notice requirements of Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.23.
